NO. 5

For the News Boy,

BOULARDERIE.

The Celt may sing his highland hills,
Which ever shall be free,
But what are highland hills at best
Compared with Boularderie.

The Englishman may praise his plains,
Each mount and lake and free;
But there's not found on English ground
A spot like Boularderie.

I never saw a summer rose,
(O'er expect to see)
Bloom half so well as does the bell
That grows on Boularderie.

The ravens cry, the sea-gulls scream
Throughout this gem of sea;
Give me a cot and barley plot
On lonely Boularderie.

Yet Lardries lads are blusk and braw,
And lassies full of glee;
You will find fools in all the schools
But none in Boularderie.

For best of all, the sons of truth,
Who noble are and free,
Still rally round the Covenant
On happy Boularderie.

Compared with Lardrie's healthy braes
The fairest spots can be,
On Tweed or Clyde, there's none beside
That equals Boularderie.

Then let us sing a stirring song,
And dance and shout with glee,
In praise of everything that is
On bonny Boularderie.

A squash weighing 292 lbs. has been grown in a garden in Lunenburg Co.

New York, as well as Boston, has a small supply of water on hand.

Carey, the murdered informer, was buried, not exactly "deeply and at dead of night," like Sir John Moore, but "few and short were the prayers that were said," by the surgeon, Dr. Lusor, who was, with Carey's three children, a magistrate and a few negroes present at the interment in South Africa. Carey was a devout attendant of the church, and in Kilmainham Jail complained of being debarred from daily mass.

The Rev. Talmage discovered ex-Governor Blackburn, of Kentucky, in his church last Sunday, and just as his congregation got ready to sing asked Blackburn to a seat on the platform. As the preacher clasped the Kentuckian's hand, 6,000 voices sang out: "While the lamp holds out to burn the vilest sinner may return." Blackburn is waiting to get even with Talmage for this.

The ceremony of receiving Sitting Bull, the great Indian chief, into the Catholic Church, which it was anticipated would take place this week at Fort Yates, has been indefinitely postponed, because Sitting Bull cannot make up his mind which of his wives he will let go.

Advices from French sources, dated Hanoi, September 16, stated that the Black Flags have abandoned Sontag and the villages of Pekung and Lugne and retired to the left bank of the Red River. Several Mandarins have given in their submission to the French authority.

When Neptune wants to flirt with mother earth, he gently waves the sea across her bosom. — Exchange. And then invites her to the bank-wet.

Diphtheria prevails to such an extent at Arcadia, Yarmouth, that the public schools have been closed.

The corn crop of the United States will be about one billion six hundred million bushels.

The loss by the late fire in Constantinople is about a million dollars.

Pull the bell softly.

R. J. COLEMAN, MANAGER.

NORTH SYDNEY, OCTOBER 2, 1883.

The Boston Advertiser is authority for the assertion that there are at present in the city of Boston 20,000 homeless young women and girls. We think that our young women from the rural districts who at this season of the year usually get badly struck with the go-to-Boston craze should seriously ponder over this fact before skipping out. Too many of our provincial girls go to Boston to become domestic drudges and supporters of employment offices. The city is overrun with them. If they could only content themselves under the parental roof they would be much better off.

The same may be said concerning scores of young men who annually migrate to the United States. They ought to stay at home and work on their farms. It would prove more profitable to them in the end. When away from home in many instances they are only too glad to accept any kind of job that may offer, no matter how slavish they are compelled to work, or how unremunerative that job may prove to be. We feel convinced that if these young men who leave Cape Breton to become farm hands or longshoremen in and around Boston would remain at home and work half as hard as they are compelled to abroad, the Island would be benefitted and their own condition greatly improved. We do not say anything against a mechanic or tradesman going to the United States. We would advise him to go; and if he does not do what too many have done, merely to get employment,—sell his labor too cheaply,—all will be well with him.

The workmen of the United States have succeeded in getting a law enacted against the introduction of Chinese cheap labor. We trust there never will be any occasion to legislate against the importation of cheap labor from Nova Scotia.

The barque Camperdown, sold at auction on Saturday last, was purchased by Capt. C. M. Lorway for $2,700.

The fourth annual meeting of the Teachers' Association will open in Temperance Hall, Sydney on Thursday next. The opening address will be delivered by Inspector McNeil, and the reading of papers on "Geography," by J. W. Bissett; "Natural History Lesson," by W. Haggerty; "School Law," by J. A. Gillies, M.A., will fill up the remainder of the day. On Friday J. D. McNeil will read a paper on "Teachers' Duties"; D. McK. Gillis on "Technical Education"; E. T. McKeon on "Chemistry," and Dr. McKay a paper on "Hygiene." Able and interesting discussions will no doubt follow the reading of each of these papers.

—And at an early hour on the first day of the month did the young blood scamper forth with his rusty old gun to slay partridges. And he hath travelled a great distance, over mountain and through glen, and did seek patiently for the festive feathered tribe, and lo at eventide he returneth, his game bag empty and his stomach — in the same condition.

The Rev. Mr. Tribou, Chaplain of the U. S. frigate Powhattan, preached in the Methodist church, Sydney, Sunday evening last. We understand that he has kindly consented to speak in the Methodist church in this town to-morrow (Wednesday) evening.

Mr. Lawrence Keefe of Sydney met with a very severe accident while at work on the Cape Breton Co.'s pier one day last week. He was jammed between two cars. His collarbone is broken and he is severely injured about the chest.

Hugh McLennan, D. A. Smith, A. Kingman, and T. R. Brown, of Montreal, and R. Belloni of Sydney, will apply for incorporation as the International Coal Company, with headquarters at Montreal.

During the past year the amount of tonnage that visited the port of Halifax aggregated over half a million tons, the pilotage dues thereon amounting to $10,600.

We observe by an advertisement in a Halifax paper that the fare by "Neptune from East Bay to North Sydney via East Bay is $4.00."

An order in council has been passed approving of the regulations of the pilotage district of Bras d'Or.

The Rev. Mr. Quin, who left here on Monday last, has received a call from the Presbyterian congregation of New Annan, Pictou county.

A pic-nic in aid of the Roman Catholic Church at Sydney Mines is to be held about the middle of the month.

THE NORTH SYDNEY NEWS BOY.

NAVAL.—The U. S. warship Powhattan arrived in port last week, and is lying abreast the shiretown. The Powhattan is a second-class ship, carrying 14 guns, with 204 men. From latest data we observe that the total strength of the American navy is 78 ships, carrying 548 guns. Of this force there are in actual service, either cruising or employed as receiving ships in navy yards, 42 vessels, carrying 412 guns, with 5,134.

The French war ship Clorinde is also in the harbor.

The barque Alice, lately recoppered on the marine railway here, and loaded at the International pier, went ashore on Anticosti a few days since. The S.S. Relief has gone to her assistance.

We are pleased to note the return of Mr. O. B. Saunders of the W. U. telegraph staff, who has been spending a few months' vacation at home in Annapolis.

A thunder storm passed over on Sunday last. The lightning at times was very vivid.

The October term of the Supreme Court opened at Sydney to-day.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.—Lord Granville, on his return to London, conferred with Lord Northbrook as to the present condition of the navy, in view of possible and immediate contingencies. Orders now issuing to the Government dockyards denote great activity and the instant addition of several ships to the fleet.

Capt. Harvey, late of the English navy, has been engaged by the Chinese Government. A number of retired officers are following him, it being the intention of the Government at Pekin that the Chinese iron-clad fleet shall be officered almost entirely by Europeans.

All Russian ships of war on foreign service have been ordered to concentrate at some unknown station in the Northern Pacific. The object of this movement is attributed by the French to a desire to be ready to attack German vessels in the Pacific in event of war between France and Germany during the winter.

Three thousand Orangemen paraded the streets of the town of Armagh, Ireland, on the 29th ult., and held a meeting, at which they passed a resolution denouncing the Irish National League, as a body of treasonable conspirators and noisy agitators, who are trying to excite discontent and outrage for selfish purposes.
